LAST NIGHT'S CONCERT.

The Arion Hall was well filled last evening with an audience assembled to hear the farewell concert by the Swiss Warblers, Miss Uhl, Messrs. Maag and Schmidt. The front of the platform was very tastefully decorated with potted plants, and colored lanterns were hung along the verandahs of the hall. The concert commenced at eight o'clock and for one hour these three talented people appeared in solos, duets and trios which were exceedingly well received by the audience, and they were rewarded with frequent applause. Mr. Schmidt's solos on the zither were finely played, showing him to be a complete master of the instrument. Miss Uhl, in her solos, showed considerable skill, while the jodeling of Mr. Maag was quite a treat, being something seldom heard here.

At the conclusion of the programme Bandmaster Berger mounted the platform, thanked the audience for their attendance and announced that dancing will be next in order.

Mr. Berger, with five members of his band, played for dancing, which was kept up for some time with much spirit. Mr. T. P. Severin was floor manager. Refreshments were served during the evening. All the members of the Arion present did all in their power to make the occasion pleasant.

The Bernice P. Bishop Museum on the Kamehameha School grounds has reached the stage of roofing. Its architectural design is now completely displayed, showing it to be one of the noblest buildings of Honolulu. The stone was nearly all quarried and dressed on the ground.

Two well known young men of Kilauea, Kauai, were noticed a week from last Saturday, examining the flumes at that place with much interest and close attention. At last their excited appearance caused someone to ask them if anything was the matter. They replied that they had heard the cries of a child proceeding from the flume and were afraid an accident had occurred. It turned out that it was H. B. M. S. Espiegle blowing her siren whistle. Tableau!

In the BULLETIN June 20th appeared an item giving the names of the first ten original Trustees elected by the Queen's Hospital corporation, and only the name of one of the survivors of the ten appointed by the Government. Gregg, William Webster, George M. Robertson, T. C. Heuck, John Ladd, James Bisset, H. J. H. Holdsworth, A. B. Bates, John Montgomery.

KAMEHAMEHA SCHOOL.

The terminal recitations of the Kamehameha School for Boys took place at the class rooms of the institution from nine o'clock this morning till noon. They were in the following order: Fifth division—mental analysis and equations, and reading, conducted by Saml. Kellinot, pupil teacher; Fourth division—dictation and oral sentences, conducted by Miss M. E. Hillebrand; Third division—written sentences and reading, conducted by Mr. L. C. Lyman; Second division—business letter dictated, with original reply, and oral analysis, conducted by the Principal, Rev. W. B. Oleson; and, First division—composition and algebra, conducted by Mr. H. S. Townsend.

The scholars showed much mental alertness and considerable originality in literary exercises, together with remarkable facility in arithmetic and algebra on the blackboard. Their work was corrected by the class in a majority of cases, a method promotive of quickness in the perceptive faculty. The most apparent defect in their offhand composition was, naturally, faultiness in the English idiom even where strictly correct as to syntax, which will disappear gradually under the careful training of the teachers.

All the available room for visitors was crowded, there being, besides a large number of friends of the pupils, the following named persons present: Princess Liliuokalani, Chief Justice Judd, Hon. H. A. P. Carter, Revs. Dr. Beckwith, H. Bingham, S. E. Bishop, J. Waiama and A. D. Bissell; Mrs. Bingham, Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. W. C. Merritt; Hons. W. D. Alexander, H. M. Whitney and S. M. Damen; Prof. W. T. Brigham of Harvard University; Mrs. L. A. Thurston, Mrs. A. B. Lyons, Mr. A. T. Atkinson, Inspector-General of Schools; Mrs. L. D. Pinney and Miss Brewer of Oahu College and Preparatory School, Miss Lyman of Kamehameha Preparatory School, Mrs. H. S. Townsend, Miss Papon of Kawaiahaeo Seminary, Mrs. J. U. Kawainui, the Misses Needham, Miss Palmer, Miss M. E. Green, Messrs. J. O. Carter, J. W. Kalua, S. Kane, representatives of the BULLETIN and Advertiser, and many others.

After the recitations the visitors on invitation of Mr. Oleson went through the workshops, seeing the pupils at work in the sewing room, printing office, carpenter shop, blacksmith shop, and pumping house. The evidences of skill in handicraft were much and deservedly admired, great progress being apparent since the previous anniversary. A neat "salutation" was set up and struck off on cards, for distribution fresh from the press to visitors in the printing office. Mr. J. D. Wieke has charge temporarily of the carpenter shop, while Mr. Townsend superintends the printing department.

The trial of the patent case of the Westinghouse Company against the Edison Company, opened in the United States Circuit Court May 20. Patents worth $20,000,000 are at stake.

Nothing New—Adorer (nervously)—Isn't that your father's step on the stairs? Sweet Girl—Yes, but I don't mind that; it's only a scare. He won't come down. He always stamps around that way when I sit up with young men after 11 o'clock.

Ants, Mice, Moths & Roaches
In Pianos!

IN this country, especially where Ants, Mice, Moths and Roaches infest your Pianos to the destruction of the same, and the annoyance of all called upon to use them, it would be well to place your instruments in the hands of YARNDELY'S care, who will effectually clear them of all destructive insects, etc., and clean the strings and tuning pins from rust. See to this before it is too late!

Let Mr. YARNDELY tune your Pianos and keep them in tune. Many Pianos suffer greatly and become worthless for need of intelligent and more frequent attention in regard to the above.

Orders received at the office of the HAWAIIAN NEWS CO., Merchant street, will be promptly attended to.
